

三三調

F-FCF-CFC

TAIZANHA

Handwritten musical notation for the 'San-san' (三三調) scale. The notation consists of vertical lines with various symbols (circles, squares, triangles) and Japanese characters (ツ, ロ, ヲ, イ) indicating pitch and rhythm. The notation is arranged in five vertical columns, each representing a different melodic line. The first column starts with a square box containing the character '四' and a triangle above a line with a circle. The second column starts with a square box containing '四' and a triangle above a line with a circle. The third column starts with '五' above a line with a circle, followed by '四' and a triangle above a line with a circle. The fourth column starts with a square box containing '四' and a triangle above a line with a circle. The fifth column starts with a square box containing '四' and a triangle above a line with a circle.
